

OBJECTIVES OF THE RADIOACTIVITY TEAM

- Presentation, review and discussion of experimental and conceptual work completed since WEACAU II.
- Identification of gaps and inconsistencies to guide the planning of future work.
- Review of conceptual and regulatory approaches to the assurance of safe and effective use of NORM residues without undue exposure of members of the public.
- Presentation and discussion of proposed control strategies in the framework of current international radiation protection standards and practices.