

Radioactivity Team

Monitoring, results, analysis and assessment methods

Discussion topics

- How sensitive are dose calculations to model details? Should we strive for a common, universally accepted model?
- How good is the agreement between measurements performed by different teams and laboratories?
- Does the addition of coal ash to concrete decrease the radon emanation rate? By how much? At what range of concentrations and densities?
- Proposals and priorities for further studies in the future.